Subject: Madria slabs nominated one of the 20 best home products!

Permacon is proud to announce that Madria slabs, enhanced by Satura colour and texturing technology, has been designated one of the Top 20 Home Products in the Building Materials category by This Old House Media Group. This mention demonstrates once again the uniqueness of the Madria slabs in the landscaping industry. We are particularly honored to receive this nomination from This Old House group which is recognized as one of the greatest in the building materials industry in North America.

Subtle variations of shades give Madria slabs a rustic, whitewashed effect that confers them a timeless wooden look perfectly suited to outdoor living spaces. Everything you want from wood, with none of the drawbacks. On its own or as a complement to Madria slabs, the Madria Tandem Next wall is also available in the same colours.

This Old House group, through its various media platforms such as television, digital and magazine, has been reaching out every week, for 40 years, millions of homeowners and industry professionals across the United States and Canada.
